

Mary-Beth Roberts, M.S., CGC, is a general and pediatric genetic counselor at Cleveland Clinic in Cleveland, Ohio. She specializes in renal genetics and is currently one of two genetic counselors staffing the Renal Genetics Clinic at Cleveland Clinic. She is the co-founder of the Renal Genetics Special Interest Group at the National Society of Genetic Counselors and is involved in various initiatives promoting this growing specialty.